DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This Office Action is in response to Amendments filed 9/25/07.

- Claims 1-2 are currently amended.
- Claims 3-8 are newly added.
- Claims 1-8 are pending in the current Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claims 1-4, and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicants Admitted Prior Art (10/711034) in view of Nakamura et al (US 5920554).

Regarding Claims 1, 3, and 6-8, Applicants Admitted Prior Art teaches (a) assigning a code to each user, where the said code can be the same or different for different users (Par.5) and of the same or different rates for different users (Par.23, a coded sequence is produced for m users and it is well known in the art that rates can be the same or different for different users) and; (b) encoding a source data sequence to create a coded source data sequence for each user using an encoder assigned to that user (Par.19); (c) interleaving each coded source data sequence so as to modify an order of said coded source data sequence to produce an interleaved data sequence, wherein interleaved data sequences from different users are distinguished by using different interleaving schemes (Par.20 and 21), however Applicants Admitted Prior Art is silent on (d) assigning a pre-calculated power level to each user, wherein the power level is different for at least some users, and (e) transmitting the interleaved data sequence for each user using the assigned pre-calculated power level for that user.

Nakamura teaches that (d) assigning a pre-calculated power level to each user (Col.5:62-67), wherein Applicants Admitted Art teaches that the power level can be different for at least some users (Par.11, equal and unequal power control), and Honkasalo further teaches (e) transmitting the interleaved data sequence for each user using the assigned pre-calculated power level for that user (Col.5:52-67).

To one of ordinary skill in the art it would have been obvious to modify Applicants Admitted Prior Art with Nakamura such that, (d) assigning a pre-calculated power level to each user, wherein the power level is different for at least some users, and (e) transmitting the interleaved data sequence for each user using the assigned pre-calculated power level for that user, to provide a method where radio communication may be performed by using codes with unequal power allocation so that multi-users may be addressed.

Regarding Claims 2 and 4, Applicants Admitted Prior Art further teaches wherein at least one of the codes comprises at least one of a hybrid form of narrow sense code, a repeat code and a spreading operation (Par.9).

2. Claims 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicants Admitted Prior Art (10/711034) and Nakamura et al (US 5920554) in further view of Sumiya et al (US 5319672).

Regarding Claims 5 and 7, Applicants Admitted Prior Art and Nakamura teach all the limitations as recited in claim 3, however the combination does not expressly teach the assigned codes are the same for at least some of the users.

Sumiya teaches that the assigned codes are the same for at least some of the users (Col.5:50-51).

To one of ordinary skill in the art, it would have been obvious to modify Applicants Admitted Prior Art and Nakamura with Sumiya such that the assigned codes are the same for at least some of the users to provide radio communications by spreading the digital information to the receiving ends.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
